About the conference

Crisis Workers' Society of Ontario is pleased to announce that its 33rd Annual Conference will be held June 14, 15 & 16, 2017 at the Sheraton Hotel in Hamilton. The theme for the conference, which is sponsored by Good Shepherd Non-Profit (Hamilton) and St. Joseph's Healthcare (Hamilton) is Crisis: We Are All at Risk. The conference will bring together a wide range of individuals involved in frontline crisis work within our communities, hospital emergency departments, first responders (police, paramedics), nurses, social workers and community-based mental health practitioners. The program will feature a number of excellent keynote

Sponsorship opportunity

Crisis Workers' Society of Ontario is inviting sponsors to be part of this year's conference. Participants of this conference come from all over the province of Ontario. They are nurses, social workers, mental health practitioners, police and first responders. Our participants are from both frontline and management staff. By participating in this program, your business will be exposed to both local and provincial audience.
